

Important notice of Extension of Deferment Period for Emergency Small Amount Fund and General Support Fund, Special loans due to the impact of the new coronavirus infection

*Plain expressions are used for non-native English speakers.

1. Extension of Deferment Period

The deferment period (the period during which the borrower does not need to repay) has been extended for the Emergency Small Amount Fund and the General Support Fund (Special Loans) that you received.

The procedure for extending the deferment period is handled by the Aichi Prefectural Council of Social Welfare.

2. Exemption from repayment (no longer need to repay)

Special loans will be "exempt from reimbursement" (i.e., You no longer need to repay) if you meet the requirements set by the national government.

Requirements set by the national government:

You will be exempt from repayment if both you (the borrower) and the head of your household are exempt from taxation for both the municipal tax per-capita rate and income tax for FY2021 or FY2022.

Procedures for repayment exemption will be announced in May 2022 (Reiwa 4) or later.

If you are not exempted from repayment, repayment of the borrowed money will begin sequentially from January 2023 (Reiwa 5).

The method of repayment will be announced in May 2022 (Reiwa 4) or later.

3. Your Name or Address Change

Any change of address or name must be reported as part of the borrower's compliance (i.e., keeping and following what has been decided).

Please be sure to report to the TEL 052-684-9766 in section 4.

We will send a "Notification of Change of Address, Name, etc.".

[Required Documents]

- Notification of Change of Address, Name, etc.
- Change of address: Original resident register (for all household members) or copy of driver's license (after address change) or health insurance register (after address change) (back and front)
- Name change: Original extract of the family register or copy of driver's license (after address change) (back and front)
